

Errata sheet for State of the Great Lakes 1995

page i, 1st column, 3rd paragraph, 2nd sentence: should read “These papers are the background to this report.”

page 3, Table 1 - The Great Lakes Factsheet: the total population for Canada should be 8,484,290.

page 6, Figure 2 - Primary Ecosystem Stressors and Effects: “Phycial” (in upper left hand corner) should be “Physical”.

page 29, Figure 16: the caption should read “Canada-Great Lakes States Trade for 1992”.

page 35, 2nd column, last line of 1st paragraph should read: “...as seen in Table 7.”

page 40, 1st column, 2nd paragraph, 2nd sentence should read: “In Green Bay seven of the 11 impaired uses are the result of excessive nutrients.”

Errata sheet for State of the Great Lakes 1995

page i, 1st column, 3rd paragraph, 2nd sentence: should read “These papers are the background to this report.”

page 3, Table 1 - The Great Lakes Factsheet: the total population for Canada should be 8,484,290.

page 6, Figure 2 - Primary Ecosystem Stressors and Effects: “Phycial” (in upper left hand corner) should be “Physical”.

page 29, Figure 16: the caption should read “Canada-Great Lakes States Trade for 1992”.

page 35, 2nd column, last line of 1st paragraph should read: “...as seen in Table 7.”

page 40, 1st column, 2nd paragraph, 2nd sentence should read: “In Green Bay seven of the 11 impaired uses are the result of excessive nutrients.”